Job Posting: Music Director

Music is a key component of worship at Kortright and is central to our shared vision of “Jesus Kingdom Made Real – Every Person, Every Nation”. The Music Director role is a vital leadership function in the development of our music ministry and our intent is that he/she will help us to pursue our four goal areas: Spiritual Formation, Reaching Outward, Opportunity to Serve and Godly Relationships. We are therefore seeking a committed Christian with proven musical and people skills to develop and coach the musical teams for our ‘blended’ and ‘contemporary’ Sunday services. The Kortright Music Director will also possess strong musical leadership, the ability to organize music effectively within a worship service and high standards of quality. A background in vocal music and guitar or keyboard would be highly desirable.

The duties for this 20 hr/wk. position include:

1. Direct oversight and development of all aspects of music ministry for worship services and seasonal events, including:
  - a) Recruiting and training musicians and team leaders for music ministry;
  - b) Coaching bands, song leaders and other musical ensembles
  - c) Regular participation as a worship leader/musician
  - d) Scheduling of musicians, including special music and seasonal groups
2. Attendance at monthly meetings of the Worship Planning Team in order to:
  - e) Engage in long-range planning for worship services
  - f) Establish goals and objectives for worship at KPC
  - g) Oversee those responsible for specific elements of various worship services.
3. Oversight of Program Budgets relating to the Ministry of Music
4. Regular collaboration/consultation with the Worship IT Director
